Title:	No Hearts In The Concrete Jungle
Picture:
Caption:	In the fashionable district of Causeway Bay, a fallen old lady is ignored by passers-by, showing the urban heartlessness that the poor and socially inept are subjected to in Hong Kong.
Commentary:	Hong Kong is a city of many extremes. Even in the midst of bustling; Causeway Bay, through the crowds of chatty teenagers and business people, half on spanking new mobile phones, you can still see many old, helpless and sick people, all silently crying for help but being ignored all the same. The woman in the above photo was shuffling along and fell down. Yet nobody bothered to help her. Some just stood by and watched, most walked by and continued their day. The government here does do a lot to solve the problems of the elderly and poor, but not until the citizens themselves learn to be compassionate will we ever see a glimmer of emotion in the concrete jungle that is Hong Kong.
