| Commentary: | How many times did you play carousel in your childhood? Do you still remember the feelings of riding on a carousel? Making dreams or feeling excited? Nowadays, especially in Hong Kong, people are so busy and rush their life. They work for a living and higher quality of life. Homework, examinations, tests, books have also become a tremendous moral burden of children. How about their leisure time? They work hard for their lives, their future. However, they did ignore a question --- are they happy? "Playing" seldom appears on their schedule. Will they miss the time riding on a carousel? I miss it. The feeling of freedom and eternity. "Carousel" is already a dream of people in this century. | | |
