Some of us do not even know what is love...Love is something special not all of us have it.
But if you spend some time on it, you will know that love is peaceful and beautiful.

S.4 – 7:

200 – 300 words

Just like the picture I have shown, it makes me feel warm and I can feel the mother's love.
Have you noticed that the kid and the mother in that picture smile happily like the sun up in the sky? I feel like that, although you may not feel like that , I think almost all the people after seeing the picture will think it is a picture filled with love...

Someone may ask me "Why don't you choose a picture that has both the father and mother?" I just want to tell that my father and mother have been divorced since I was in primary one .So, I think that a mother's love is more important than a father's. You may think that I am selfish, but mother's love is more important than anything in this world, just like some people said "Mother's love is the greatest!!"

And I think love can be seen all over the world, but we must be jealous of this warm, beautiful , peaceful LOVE!!
