

Best Title Award Champion

Students name: David Lau (S.4), Kelvin Chan (S.4), Patrick Ng (S.4)

School: Shung Tak Catholic English College

Entry No: 159

Theme:  Love

Division:  S.1 – 3  S.4 – 7

Title: The City of Love

Max.8 words

Picture:

(less than 2MB size)

Caption: This is a snapshot of where I live, Tin Shui Wai. The city at night is beautiful and harmonious. I love this city.

Max.30 words

Inspired and Supported by:

Commentary:

S.1 – 3:

100 – 200 words

S.4 – 7:

200 – 300 words

To many citizens, this place is the city of sadness and no one is willing to visit here or even talk about it because of the negative news and the influence of the media. However, I am extremely against this as the love in here is not less than but even more than the other places. Tin Shui Wai is a city of love. To me, Tin Shui Wai is a city of love instead of sadness. Walking around Tin Shui Wai, love can be found in everywhere, no matter the love between mothers and their little sons or the care between each of them. When someone has difficulty, neighbours will help him as they can. We can also find the love of friendship in Tin Shui Wai. Different kinds of love can be found in this city. Tin Shui Wai is also a peaceful and relaxing city. Different facilities like parks and stadium were built for us to release our stress. Retired people chat, play chess or do exercise in parks. Children and teenagers play with each other in the park, too. To me, this city is harmonious and full of love. When the night comes, this city turns to a beautiful city like a lovely girl wearing an elegant dress. This scene is wonderful and unforgettable, so I think this snapshot can represent the love of this city and tell the others the real face of Tin Shui Wai.

Inspired and Supported by:

